For Current Dates and Locations

Our relationships are often the most rewarding... and sometimes the most puzzling... aspects of our lives!

In intimate or work settings, within families, friendships, or in daily public encounters, the quality of our relationships has enormous impact on the quality of our lives, as it does on our general happiness and self esteem, and on our careers.

Understanding ourselves and others is the key to having fulfilling relationships.

The Enneagram Relationships Workshop provides practical ways to expand your understanding of these relationships.

This remarkable system of nine basic personality types sheds light on the most important psychological dynamics in our personality, as well as the deeper spiritual yearnings of our soul.

In This Workshop We Will Explore:

- Key points for using the Enneagram in relationships.
- Assets and liabilities each type brings to the relationship.
- How each type approaches conflict in relationships.
- How the Instincts (Subtypes) powerfully influence our daily lives and relationships.
- How our experienced childhood orientation affects primary motivations in relationships.

We will use: informative presentations, take-home materials, reflective and interactive exercises, panels of exemplars, and music to help us recognize our personal strengths and uncover the blind spots we bring to our relationships.

This Workshop is for you...

If you want to enhance the enjoyment and freedom of your relationships with your partner, your children, friends, business associates..... your world .... and with yourself.
